Welcome Back to A Tournament for Emily

I would like to thank all the teams for participating in the 20th Anniversary of the Tournament for Emily. I have always felt uncomfortable with fundraising for the goal of having healthy kids get new uniforms or go to nice places to play in the sun. Instead, I believe in using this platform to raise awareness and money for a worthwhile cause, such as supporting Children's Hospital.

A big thank you to our past and current parents, our Junior Girls Team, Annabelle Neufeld, Maliyah Medoza, Ariel Vergara, Tristan McCutcheon, Jeremy Neufeld, Banting Middle School and the Riverside Staff. This tournament would not happen without your support!

Thanks to our amazing sponsors for covering costs to allow for all the profits to go to Children's Hospital!

A special thank you to my family for helping with the tournament since the beginning. In all the years that we have been running this tournament, we have raised over $100,000.00 and hopefully inspired some young girls to give back to the community.

Thank you!

Paul Langford, and the Riverside Rapids

Emily. we will never forget!

Thank you to our sponsors

Emily Deanne Inglis

February 19, 1990 – June 1, 2002

When Emily was nine, she was diagnosed with neuroblastoma. She battled cancer for three years with humour and tenacity.

“When we found out that her battle with cancer was coming to an end, I struggled with how I would tell her. Our social worker at Children’s offered suggestions on how we might feel comfortable in telling her this tragic news. One thing she came up with was the story of Waterbugs and Dragonflies. On the night I broke the bad news, I told her the story. That was only a couple of weeks before she passed away. The morning after she died and we had come home from Canuck Place, I went outside to sit on our deck for a few minutes alone. It was then that she sent me my first dragonfly. It swooped all around me for a minute or so and then flew away over our roof. I ran inside to tell John that she was telling us she was OK. That summer of 2002 we had one big dragonfly come into our backyard over and over again to sun itself on some big rocks in our garden. It was very comforting.”

“On my parent’s 60th wedding anniversary, my family was gathered for the party, so my brother hired a photographer. We were in a nice park in Summerland overlooking Okanagan Lake. I was fine with all the group shots, pictures with my parents, etc. but I didn’t want to do the family photo because we hadn’t had one taken since losing Emily more than five years earlier. John said we should do it because this was our family now and what message would we be giving Emily’s sister Alison if all the other families did it and not us. Reluctantly I had to agree.

We waited until the end and when it was finally our turn, just as the photographer was getting us all set up, the dragonfly landed on Alison. She was standing at the time and we took pictures in many poses, moving all around then sitting down and getting back up again, but the dragonfly did not fly away. That dragonfly stayed until every family photo was taken before it flew away. It was Emily’s message that it was OK to take the pictures. Her spirit was there with us. I am not a religious person but I believe that her spirit is always here with us. As you can imagine, not one day has gone by since we lost her that we do not think of her. She will be with us forever.” ~ The Inglis Family
